Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:*(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1           1.       The terms “COMCAST,” “YOU,” “YOUR,” shall mean Comcast Cable
3       Communications, 3 Executive Campus, 5th Floor, Cherry Hill, New Jersey, and/or any of its 4       officers, members, managers, partners, employees, agents, representatives, advisors, contractors,
5       consultants, corporate parents, subsidiaries or affiliates, and all persons acting or purporting to act
6       on its behalf or under its control.

8           2.       The term “IP ADDRESS” shall mean an Internet Protocol address that is assigned 9       to devices participating in a computer network that uses the Internet Protocol for communicating 10       between computer nodes. Specifically, as used in this Attachment/Request for Production of 11       Business Records, “IP address” shall mean the IP address on record at Comcast used to identify,
12       locate, assigned to, or otherwise related to a particular customer, subscriber, client or user at a 13       particular point in time.

14          3.       The term “PERSONALLY IDENTIFYING INFORMATION” shall mean records
15       or other information pertaining to a Comcast customer, subscriber, client or user of the Comcast 16       Internet service of services, not including the contents of communications stored by Comcast, if 17       any, on behalf of that customer, subscriber, client or user. The meaning of this term shall be read 18       by Comcast to comport with Section 2702(c) of the Stored Communications Act, 18 U.S.C.
19       Section 2701, et seq., which provides that an internet service provider “may divulge a record or 20       other information pertaining to a subscriber to or customer of such service (not including the 21       contents of communications...).”

22          4.       The term “CONTACT INFORMATION” shall mean any and all information in 23       Comcast’s possession, excluding stored communications or other communicative subscriber 24       content, from which a reasonable person could be expected to contact or communicate with a
25       particular Comcast customer, subscriber, client or user, including, but not limited to, name, e-mail
26       address, telephone number, IP ADDRESS, credit card information, and/or physical address.

27          5.       The term “DOCUMENTS” shall be given the broadest interpretation permissible
28       and shall include, without limitation, any and all printed, written, drawn, graphic, taped, recorded,

OHS West:261012957.1

1 digitalized, computerized or otherwise electronically or mechanically created writings, images,
2 representations or data of any kind, from whatever source, whether originals, drafts, duplicates,
3 reproductions, facsimiles or copies, whether typewritten, handwritten, printed, recorded, 4 electronically encoded or otherwise produced, reproduced, stored or depicted, whether sent or 5 received or neither, whether printed out on paper or electronically stored, including, but not 6 limited to, any and all correspondence, notes, letters, memoranda, binders, telegrams, cables,
7 telecopies, faxes, emails, electronic transmissions, data compilations, diaries, logs, calendars,
8 chronological records or listings, minutes, records, books, charts, graphs, reports, statements,
9 studies, summaries, slides, PowerPoint or other presentations, drawings, sketches, pictures,
10 diagrams, guidelines, analyses, projections, work papers, financial statements, audits,
11 accountings, reconciliations, accounting records, spreadsheets, tax returns, bills, ledgers, invoices,
12 purchase orders, receipts, checks, applications, offers, contracts, agreements, proposals,
13 questionnaires, mortgages, loans, trusts, licenses, notices, advertisements, brochures, schedules,
14 pamphlets, flyers, forms, policies, computer data, files, printouts, programs, disks, drums, tapes, 15 and any taped, recorded or otherwise electronically or mechanically created sound or visual 16 reproductions, including, but not limited to, cassettes, compact disks, digital recordings, disks,
17 tape recordings, voice mails, film, microfilm, microfiche, photographs, video, and motion 18 pictures.

19         6.       “ALL DOCUMENTS” or “ANY AND ALL DOCUMENTS” shall mean any and 20 all documents that can be located, discovered or obtained by reasonably diligent efforts, 21 including, but not limited to, all documents possessed by you, your attorneys or accountants and 22 any other person from whom You can obtain such documents by request or by demand. This 23 term shall be deemed to call for the production of non-identical copies, drafts or versions of a 24 document, whether they differ by reason of any revisions, notations or otherwise.

25         7.       The connectives “and” and “or” shall be interpreted either conjunctively or 26 disjunctively so as to bring within the scope of the request all responses that might otherwise be 27 construed to be outside its scope.
28

1           8.       The spelling of a word in a particular combination of upper and/or lower case
2 letters shall be interpreted to include that word in any other combination of upper and/or lower 3 case letters.

4           9.       The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa.

5           10.      The requested documents include all attachments to a requested document, all 6 envelopes, explanatory notes or memoranda, and any other material that accompanied the 7 document(s). If the specific document elicited a response, that response is also to be produced. If 8 the document is itself a response, the document to which it responded is also to be produced.

9           11.      If you object to the production of any document on the grounds that it is protected 10 from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or any other 11 privilege or doctrine, you are requested to identify each document for which the privilege is 12 claimed and give the following information:

- 13               a.       the name of the person who wrote, sent, or initiated each copy of the
- 14                       document;
- 15               b.       the name of the recipient, addressee, or person to whom any copy of the
- 16                       document was sent;
- 17               c.       the date of each copy of the document, if any, or an estimate of its date;
- 18               d.       a statement of the basis for the claim of privilege; and
- 19               e.       a description of the document sufficient for the Court to rule on the
- 20                       applicability and appropriateness of the claimed privilege.

21           12.      If a requested document is unavailable because it has been destroyed, identify that 22 document and state further the identity of the person who ordered them destroyed and the reason 23 for their destruction.
